

$600,000

AVAILABLE

Children's Theatre, Summer Camps & Youth Arts Ed

800 Theatre Ave, Seattle, WA, 90000, US

Property Details

Year built	1996

Description

Very rare opportunity to acquire a highly respected children's theatre and performing arts education organization that has been inspiring young performers in the Seattle area for 30 years.Known for its high-quality youth theatre productions, educational programs, and popular summer camps, the organization has helped generations of children develop creativity, confidence, teamwork, and performance skills in a supportive and engaging environment.Three decades serving the children and families in the greater Seattle area, the business has built an exceptional reputation, strong community goodwill, and a loyal customer base. Deep relationships with families, educators, and arts supporters have created a lasting foundation for continued success and growth.The organization benefits from recurring enrollment, experienced instructors and production staff, established operating systems, and a proven program model that has consistently delivered outstanding experiences for participants and their families.With a long history of community impact, strong brand recognition, and significant opportunities for future expansion, this turnkey operation is ideally suited for an individual, nonprofit, educational organization, or arts-focused entrepreneur seeking a meaningful and rewarding business.NDA Required