

$173,000

AVAILABLE

Tutoring Center

222 Math Ave, Issaquah, WA, 98029, US

Property Details

Year built	2004

Description

Profitable, Well-Established Math & Reading Tutoring Center –Exceptionable opportunity to acquire a successful, independently owned tutoring center operating under one of the most recognized brand names in supplemental education. Opened in 2004, this center is profitable, very well-established and has built an excellent 4.8 star reputation for offering individualized learning programs to help students build self-confidence, achieve academic excellence through proven math and reading enrichment programs and prepare students for long-term success.For more than two decades, the center has served families throughout the community, benefiting from a trusted brand, proven curriculum, and a loyal customer base. This is an excellent opportunity for an educator, entrepreneur, investor, or owner-operator seeking a recession-resistant business in the growing education sector. This opportunity is well-suited for:• Educators and school administrators • First-time business buyers • Family-owned business operators • Individuals passionate about education and student success Continue the legacy of a trusted educational institution while benefiting from an established foundation, recognized brand, and proven business model.NDA required.*This is franchise; franchise fees are separate from the sale price. Broker is not a representative of the franchise. This is strictly an asset sale.